Lucas & Oliver — Quem Ama Quem?

Quem	Fala
LUCAS	Oliver, I always confuse 'she loves he' or 'she loves him'... which one is right?
OLIVER	'She loves HIM!' 'She' is the subject — doing the action. 'Him' is the object — receiving it.
LUCAS	So the one before the verb is always the subject, and the one after is the object?
OLIVER	Exactly! Subject acts, object receives. 'I called her.' 'They invited us.' Same pattern always.

Possessive Pronouns — Quem é o Dono

Subject	Possessive + substantivo	Possessive isolado
I	my book	mine
You	your book	yours
He	his book	his (igual)
She	her book	hers
We	our book	ours
They	their book	theirs

LUCAS	Yes, it's my laptop. Actually — this laptop is mine!
OLIVER	Perfect! You used both forms correctly — 'my laptop' with the noun, and 'mine' standing alone.
